Hello,

The City of Lloydminster is excited to be hosting its 3rd Annual Bordering on Disaster Conference on September 18, 2018. The conference will be held at the Lloydminster Exhibition Grounds: Stockade Convention Centre. Building on the success of last year, we believe that this year's program will be even better.

The program offers a diverse agenda allowing attendees to learn and share , focusing on the reality faced by emergency management professionals serving communities, government and industry. The presentations are broadly relevant to large and small organizations maximizing value for your dollar through comprehensive discussion and practical takeaways.

Early bird tickets are available until August 17, 2018 for $80, with regular admission available after this date at $100 per person.

Keynote speakers include Ron Mattiussi, retired Kelowna B.C. City Manager who will share his community recovery experiences and Ernie Polsom, Director of Emergency Management with the City of Lloydminster who will lead a discussion on Big Tools for Big Jobs. There are six breakout sessions providing a detailed look at the practical aspects of a range of modern issues including the changing landscape of insurance coverage, emerging trends in regional mutual aid agreements, integration of health agency plans at the local level and much more! For more information on these presentations, and to purchase your tickets please visit www.lloydminster.ca/BOD.

Thanks for your time and I look forward to seeing you in Lloydminster!,
